LABOUR DEPARTMENT

The 20th September, 1977

No. 9250-4Lab-77.—In pursuance of the provision of section 17 of the Industrial Dispute Act, 1947 (Act No. XIV of 1947) the Governor of Haryana is pleased to publish the following award of the Presiding Officer, Labour Court, Rohtak in respect of the dispute between the workmen and the management of M/s Ashoka Theatre (P) Ltd. Rohtak.

BEFORE SHRI MOHAN LAL JAIN, PRESIDING OFFICER, LABOUR COURT, HARYANA, ROHTAK

Reference No. 108 of 1975

between

SHRI MANGU RAM WORKMAN AND THE MANAGEMENT OF M/S. ASHOKA THEATRE
(P) LTD. ROHTAK

AWARD

By order No. ID/RTK/246-B-75/69835, dated 1st December, 1975 the Governor of Haryana referred the following dispute between the management of M/s. Ashoka Theatre (P) Ltd. Rohtak and its workman Shri Mangu Ram to this Court, for adjudication in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 :—

“Whether the termination of services of Shri Mangu Ram Gate Keeper was justified and in order? If not; to what relief is he entitled?”

The parties put in their appearance in response to the usual notices of reference sent to them.

The workman raised a demand dated 1st July, 1975 on the management concerned for his reinstatement with continuity of service and full back wages on the allegations that the later illegally terminated his services with effect from 11th February, 1975 without assigning any reasons and that they had obtained his signatures on a blank paper on 7th December, 1974 which he proposed to withdraw.

The management while denying the allegations of the workman as referred to above,—vide written statement filed by them, pleaded that he absented himself from duty with effect from 1st January, 1975 and his name had to be struck off the rolls of their employees as a result of his continued long absence.

The workman reiterated the allegations made by him in the notice of demand and controverted the pleas of the management concerned,—vide rejoinder filed by him with the result that the following issues were framed by me,—vide order dated 2nd December, 1976 :—

1. Whether the workman absented himself from duty with effect from 1st January, 1975 and continued to do so, there after till his name was struck off the muster rolls by the management as a result of his long continued absence?
2. Whether the termination of services of Shri Mangu Ram was justified and in order? If not, to what relief is he entitled?

I have heard learned authorised representatives of the parties with reference to the evidence led by them and seen the record. I decide the issues as under :—

Issue No. 1.—The management in order to prove this issue examined Shri Azad Singh Balcony Gate Keeper of the Cinema MW-1, Shri Sucha Ram Gate Keeper MW-2, Shri Raj Kumar Chief Booking Clerk MW-3, Shri Shanti Suroop Office Clerk MW-4 and Shri Harish Bakshi their Manager and Director MW-5.

Shri Azad Singh deposed that he saw Shri Mangu Ram workman concerned in the premises of the Cinema during the months of November and December 1974 and never there after. Shri Sucha Ram gave out that he did not see Shri Mangu Ram in the premises of the Cinema after 31st December, 1974 and that Shri Harish Bakshi Manager of the Cinema gave him a letter Ex. M-1 addressed to Shri Mangu Ram on 5th January, 1975 for its delivery to the latter and that Shri Mangu Ram refused to receive it from him in the presence of Shri Raj Kumar who accompanied him (Shri Sucha Ram) and that he signed the report Ex. M-1 A made by Shri Raj Kumar relating to the refusal of the workman to receive the letter. Shri Raj Kumar corroborated the statement of Shri Sucha Ram while giving out that he did not see Shri Mangu Ram in the premises of the Cinema after December, 1974. Shri Shanti Suroop Office Clerk stated that he maintained the register of attendance of employees of the Cinema and that there was no entry in this register of attendance of Shri Mangu Ram after 31st December, 1974. Shri Harish Bakshi testified that the name of Shri Mangu Ram was struck off the rolls of the employees on 11th January, 1975 as a result of his long continued absence with effect from 1st January, 1975 and that he delivered the letter Ex. M-1 directing the workman to join his duties after absence to Shri Raj Kumar and Sucha Ram on 5th January, 1975 for its delivery to Shri Mangu Ram and that he received it back with a report Ex. M-1 A from Shri Raj Kumar. This is all the evidence led by the management.

The workman examined Shri Shanti Parkash some time Chairman of the Board of Directors of the management concerned WW-1 besides making his own statement as his witness. Shri Shanti Parkash gave out that the workman Shri Mangu Ram never absented himself from duty and that his services were terminated illegally and that he (Mangu Ram) had been making complaints to him quite often that he had been marked absent by the management in the attendance register despite his having actually attended the duties. He brought on records the documents W-1 to W-5. Shri Shanti Parkash admitted that he had filed a suit in a Civil Court probably in May 1975 for declaration that he was Chairman of the Board of Directors and had obtained an adinterim temporary injunction against the management concerned restraining the later from removing him from the office of the Chairman and that his application for grant of temporary injunction was finally rejected. He further admitted that there was a litigation pending between the management concerned on the one hand and his wife and a son in a civil Court and that the Manager of the Cinema had been disobeying his orders. He admitted that he never brought the matter of disobedience of his orders by the Manager of the Cinema to the notice of the Directors in a meeting before 1976 and that he brought this matter to the notice of the Directors in a meeting convened by his son Shri Ashok Kumar Malik in the year 1976 in the premises of the Cinema. He explained that no such meeting was ever called or convened before 1976.

It would thus appear that Shri Shanti Parkash and his wife and son had a litigation with the management concerned, so much so he had been removed from the office of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and had to file a suit feeling aggrieved of the orders of his removal from that office. He cannot thus be called an independent witness by any stretch of imagination. He could not give good reasons for his statement that the workman never absented himself from duty. He seems to have only relied on a complaint made to him by the workman in this connection and conveyed his desire to the Manager of the Cinema,—vide letter Ex. W-5, W-4 to mark him present on duty without ascertaining the actual position and enquiring into the matter. His statement has thus no value and does not tend to establish the case of the workman that he had been marked absent despite his having attended his duties regularly from 1st January, 1975 to 11th January, 1975.

Ex. W-3 is a complaint made by some of the workmen including Shri Mangu Ram that their signatures had been obtained by the Manager on a blank paper. Ex. W-2 is the copy of the resolution adopted by the Board of Directors authorising Shri Shanti Parkash WW-1 to effect economy in the staff. Ex. W-1 is the copy of clause 26(a) of the articles of association of the Cinema authorising the Chairman and the Directors to remove the workmen from duty. None of these documents is thus obviously of any assistance to the applicant.

The solitary oral statement of the applicant that he remained present on duty till the end of February, 1975 stands rebutted by the documentary evidence relied on by the management as referred to above and does not as such in absence of any corroboration inspire confidence. It is further pertinent to note that the workman admittedly raised a demand on the management for his reinstatement for the first time on 1st July, 1975 about 4½ months after the alleged termination of his services. The delay thus made by him in seeking relief tends to support the case of the management that he absented himself from duty and his services were not terminated. There is nothing on record to lead me to disbelieve any of the witnesses examined by the management and I, as such fully rely on their statements and hold that the name of the workman was struck off the rolls of the employees of the management as a result of his continued absence from 1st January, 1975 to 11th January 1975 despite notice to him to attend his duties. I, accordingly decide this issue in favour of the management.

Issue No. 2.—As a result of my findings on issue No. 1 this is obviously not a case of termination of services of the workman by the management and the former is not entitled to any relief, I, decide this issue accordingly and answer the reference while returning the award in these terms.
